Ms. Makle introduced Mr. Waddell, Director of Public Finance, who then introduced Edward Pauls, Development Officer for the Square 50 – West End transaction. Mr. Pauls provided a brief overview of the project. The ownership will be controlled by EastBanc, Inc., Dantes Partners,

Upon construction completion, the project will consist of 55 affordable housing units and 6 market rate units. The other components of the building will be a fire station and a squash court/fitness center. These components will be separately financed and will close at the same time as the residential component. $6.2 million in short-term and $7.1 million in long-term tax-exempt bonds will be purchased by J.P. Morgan Chase Bank. Wells Fargo will be the low income housing tax credit investor. The bedroom mix is as follows: 12 studios, 44 one-bedrooms, and 5 two-bedrooms for a total of 61 units. Three of the one-bedroom units will be subsidized by the D.C. Housing Authority’s Local Rent Supplement Program, and those units will be rented to families or individuals earning incomes at or below 30 percent of the Area Median Income (AMI). The sponsor has elected to set aside 90 percent of units at or below 60 percent of AMI for bond and tax credit purposes.

In response to Mr. Green’s question about replacement reserves, Mr. Pauls replied that the requirement will be $300 per unit per year. There was also a discussion among Mr. Pauls, Mr. Powell and Mr. Green about how the various tenants of the building will share expenses for maintenance of the building.

Mr. Irving asked about Small Business Enterprise (SBE) participation on this transaction. Mr. Sonnett replied that the Certified Business Enterprise Agreement was executed by the developer in 2011, prior to the recent amendments to the District’s Small, Local and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Development and Assistance Act. Mr. Irving stressed that he would like to see as many SBEs as possible work on this transaction. Mr. Sonnett agreed to pass that message along to Clark Construction. Mr. Irving also stressed that the management company should endeavor to employ District residents to the greatest extent possible.
