

Lakeview Loan Servicing Partners with District of Columbia Housing Finance Agency (DCHFA)

Lakeview Loan Servicing is pleased to announce a new partnership with the District of Columbia Housing Finance Agency (DCHFA). On September 1, 2020, Lakeview became the new Master Servicer for DCHFA's DC Open Doors and DC4ME programs.

These programs were created to help make home ownership affordable and attainable in Washington, DC. Some key program highlights include*:

- Optional down payment and closing cost assistance for both Conventional and Government loans
- Income limit at $151,200
- Assistance is available for both first-time and repeat homebuyers
- No minimum required investment
- Conventional High Balance loans are now permitted

Please refer to the applicable product matrix and DCHFA's website for full program details and all guidelines.

For more information on Lakeview, click here, or contact:

Jed Guenther
Community Lending Business Manager
704-998-0041
jedguenther@bayview.com

*These highlights do not include all eligibility or credit requirements.

